

Evangelist S. Lee Homoki
I'M A FULL-TIME PREACHER and a
PART-TIME COWBOY

Preacher or Cowboy, every day brings its share of thrills and excitement! My dad, "Nevada Steve," was an old-time cowboy. My life as a boy was exciting, and dad was my hero. The fondest memories of my youth were those of being with my dad as he followed the rodeo circuit and performing with my brother and sister in the arena with him.

I have been a preacher for 45 years, 25 of those years as an itinerant evangelist. I have preached in over 1000 churches and enjoyed seeing hundreds come to salvation through faith in Christ. During most of those years I never dreamed of being a cowboy again until my dad died in 1984. Then, I inherited my dad's ropes and whips. I took them with me when I traveled. When I got the chance I would play with them as I did as a young man. I soon discovered that, like my dad before me, I could entertain moms, dads and boys and girls and also tell them about the Lord Jesus. To my great joy, thousands have enjoyed "Cowboy Lee" and hundreds have trusted Christ as Savior.

Does it sound like I'm excited? Well, I am! The Lord has been pleased to use my "Roundups for Christ" for His glory.

COWBOY LEE ... rides again!

Lee's sincerity is evident to all. His focus is upon the life of the cowboy and God. His "Will Rogers" style of demonstration and talks are given to illustrate that both God and the cowboy are busy rounding up strays. His dynamic reminder of the crucifixion of Christ will never be forgotten!
